(Fighter2) _____

The following contract has been approved by _____ (WIMAAO Representative) this day of

___/___/___

TITLE: This bout is for the WIMAAO Pro/ProAm/Am

_____ (Rules)

VENUE:

This Championship Bout will be held (State Venue)

Address _____

Title bout will be held on (Date) ___/___/___

WEIGHT:

The above named fighters shall weigh-in at no less than _____ KG and no more than _____ KG. If a fighter does not make the weight within 3 hours after the first official weigh in, their purse will be forfeited (if applicable) and they will be fined the amount of sanctioning fees, travel expenses, accommodation expenses, advertising expenses, payable to the WIMAAO promoter. Any fighter unable to reach the contracted weight as stated above the Title will be forfeited to their opponent. If the fighter who does not make the weight is the current WIMAAO title holder he/she will forfeit the title to their Opponent providing their opponent makes the contracted weight. The same fines will apply to any fighter failing to show for the weigh in. No fighter signed to this contract shall engage in another fight or contract competition within a 28 day period of the date of this fight. In international bouts up to 1.36 kg can be waived for the travelling fighter if the travelling fighter is coming in from a different continent.

PRE FIGHT HEALTH

All fighters will be examined by a licensed Medical Doctor (MD) directly before their bout for determination of any injuries. If after this examination, the event Doctor (MD) determines that any fighter cannot fight due to illness or prior injury and this is upheld by the WIMAAO representative at the event, all purse money due to this fighter will be retained by the event promoter. The failed fighter will now be responsible for all their own travel expenses (Self & Trainer) paid by the promoter along with their opponents travel expenses, opponents full purse, event promotional expenses etc. The opposing fighter will be automatically awarded the Title by forfeit.

FIGHTER CANCELLATION

If a fighter fails to show up for a scheduled fight and fails to participate as stated throughout this contract he/she will be held liable for reasonable financial loss and damages caused to the promoter. To this effect the damage will be double that of the applied sanctioning fee as stated by WIMAAO. Also unless an acceptable reason for failure to show is provided and that can be substantiated the fighter may be struck off all fighter records. No fighter signed to this contract shall engage in another fight or contract competition within a 28 day period of the date of this fight.

HOLDING CHAMPION

The WIMAAO winning champion is obligated under the terms and conditions of statute rulings of the Organization to successfully defend the Championship Title a minimum of two successful times, after winning the championship belt, before ownership of the Belts become the property of the current champion. The Title holder must defend the Titles a minimum of once per 12 month period. Failure of the Champion to defend his/her Title within the assigned time period will result in the Championship Belts being returned to the controlling Representative within the WIMAAO applied Country Office of where the Title was promoted. Belts must be returned by the holder via registered post and at the cost of the current holder.

INSURANCE

The promoter agrees to cover any and all medical expenses of any of the fighters if they are injured during their bout on this event. All fighters will be examined by a licensed Medical Doctor directly before and after their bout for determination of any injuries. Any injuries that are determined to have occurred during the bout itself will be tended to immediately after the bout while the injured fighter is still at the event. Such care shall be done so at the expense of the promoter through their fighter Insurance Policy. If additional medical care is necessary such as a fighter needing to go to a hospital or Medical Care needed in the weeks following the event as determined by a licensed Medical Doctor and was directly related to the injury that was diagnosed from their bout at the event, this too shall be covered and paid by the promoter from his/her fighter insurance policy. If for some reason the Promoter did not have a fighter medical insurance policy for their event they will still be required to pay all medical expenses within 30 days of the event as long as all medical bills are from a licensed Medical Doctor (MD) as approved by WIMAAO. In the case of a fighter who needs to return back to their home country, the Event

Promoter is still required to pay all necessary medical expenses from the injured fighters country that are directly related from the fighter's injury from the bout on their event and confirmed so by WIMAAO. WIMAAO ARE NOT LIABLE for any injuries or medical expenses etc. of any fighter, trainer, official, manager or promoter on this event. All WIMAAO Promoters must provide a valid Proof of insurance to the WIMAAO Representative prior to the start of the event at the official weigh ins or by mailed copy to WIMAAO
